INFORMATION GUIDE FOR PROSPECTIVE ADVISORS

SUPPORT HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS PREPARING FOR COLLEGE

DO YOU ENJOY WORKING WITH YOUTH?
WANT TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE IN THE COMMUNITY?

Foundation for a College Education (FCE), a nonprofit based in East Palo Alto, is looking for volunteer senior advisors to support our high school senior students with scholarship applications and essay writing.

Why advise high school seniors at Foundation for a College Education?

The Senior Advisor serves as support for a small group of students engaged in the college admission process. Advisors help students identify good-fit colleges and develop compelling applications. They also lend moral support as students work towards their goal of attending college.

Commitment & Expectations

- 5-8 hours a month for 1 academic year (September-June)
 - Monthly student/parent meetings
 - 30-minute college advising meeting
- All prospective volunteers must agree to a background check

FCE's mission is to increase the number of students of color from East Palo Alto and similar communities who graduate from a four-year college or university.
